Mr.P.Ganguli for thepetitioner.

Mr.A.S.Gaharwar for the Union of India.

The writ petitioner was dismissed from service by order dt. 13.12.96 issued by respondent no.1. The writ petitioner thereafter filed an appeal before the Deputy Inspector General of Police,North East Zone - respondent no.2 herein, in the year 1997. The said appeal is still pending. It is unfortunate that the appeal filed by the writ petitioner should be kept unheard so long. In my view in stead of this court entertaining this writ petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India,it would be appropriate that the appellate authority before whom the appeal is pending should examine the entire matter on merit and pass necessary order. In this view of the matter this writ petition is disposed of with a direction that the appellate authority shall examine and dispose of the appeal on merit without further delay and preferably within 3 months from the date of receipt of this order. The petitioner may submit a fresh copy of the appeal together with the copy of this order before the
